

Valeria Izeppi

36 Alvin Sloan Avenue, Washington, NJ 07882 • 908-377-9135 • izeppi99@gmail.com

PROFILE:

A student seeking a career which utilizes science and activism to promote the preservation of the environment.

SKILLS:

- Plant identification of Eastern U.S. species
- Effective communication and writing skills
- Ability to organize and plan events

EDUCATION:

Raritan Valley Community College, North Branch, NJ

Associate of Science in Biology Expected Dec. 2020

Overall GPA: 3.63

Awarded to Dean's List

Nota Bene Recipient for English Composition I essay, "The Ethics Found in Our Food Choices"

RELEVANT COURSEWORK:

General Chemistry I & II • General Biology I & II • English Composition I & II • Human Anatomy and Physiology I • Field Botany • Introduction to Tropical Ecology • Introduction to Geology (in-progress) • Organic Chemistry I (in-progress)

EXPERIENCE:

Forest Ecology Intern June 2019-August 2019

Raritan Valley Community College

- Identified plant species and collected data for Morris County Parks system
- Input collected data into excel
- Assisted in construction of deer exclosures

ACTIVITIES/SPECIAL INTERESTS:

Elected President of Environmental Club (Fall 2019-Spring 2020); Member of Environmental Club (Fall 2018-Spring 2019)

- Volunteered and organized in sustainability projects such as Take Back The Tap Campaign, Sustainable Coffee Sales, Maple Syrup project, Campus cleanups, Green Roof garden work

Co-Fellow, Take Back the Tap Campaign, Food & Water Watch (Fall 2019-Spring 2020)

Executive Vice President, Animal Ethics Club (Fall 2018-Spring 2019)

- Organized and hosted educational events on campus such as documentary screenings, table discussions, chalkivism, weekly meetings